TO EXTEND
N.-C.-O. ROAD

Soon Reno Will Be Connected by Rail With Eastern Oregon.

In a few days a party of engineers, commanded by R. M. Hill, will take the field to survey the N.-C.-O. extension from Terro to Lakeview. The company purposes to build over a hundred miles of track this year.

Two new passenger trains, handsomely equipped, will be put on the road early in the summer.

The car shops in this city will be equipped with the most modern machinery.

General Manager Dunaway arrived from New York yesterday, where he has been in conference with Moran Bros. He proposes to introduce a number of innovations in the way of bettering the equipment of the road both in the matter of more rapid transit and in handling heavier trains. In another month construction work will begin and soon Reno will have direct connection by rail with Eastern Oregon.

The Floriston Company Accedes.

For the past two weeks the JOURNAL has been silent in the matter of the injuries discharged in the Truckee river by the Floriston Pulp and Paper Company.

The Reno Water, Land and Light Company and the board of County Commissioners assured this paper that they would take the matter up and secure an abatement of this nuisance.

President Kaiser of the water company and the chairman of the board have been in communication with the Floriston company, and the latter have agreed to use all diligence in putting in flumes, ditches and restraining dams to hold this poisonous matter away from the river.

It is to be hoped that the flow of waste matter will cease before high water comes to wash the impurities down to the lake. Anyway, Reno is saved from the danger of an epidemic from this cause.

They Fondled the Frolicsome Tiger.

An Olinhouse mine owner and a Humboldt county mine superintendent basked the tiger in elegant style last night.

A $50 limit was given them and in about an hour the Palace box was turned up. Next they hit the Arcade fare bank for $320. A little later luck and good man cement put the Wine House roll in their pockets.

Along about midnight they were giving the Owl dealer a run for his money.

New Cown in Town.

A "guiled gen'leman" blew in from the ice ponds yesterday and painted this village a beautiful carnival. The "hurry up wagon" picked him up at the opera house corner and tooked him away. He was a mean cown'er and gave Officers Leeper and McNeilly considerable trouble.

Sweet Bells Singing.

Only three inches of snow covered the ground yesterday, but it was of proper consistency and had the right sort of foundation to make good sleighing. All the cutters in town were out in the moonlight and sleigh bells jingled everywhere. More snow is expected.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Bills and Resolutions Considered--
Both Houses Will Visit
Reno, Today.

YESTERDAY'S session of the Legislature was enlivened by the introduction of a bill by Senator Flanigan to repeal the prize fight law. This has awakened a storm of unfavorable criticism on the part of the Carsonites, as the majority of the people in that place steadfastly believe that Dan Stuart really came to Nevada to arrange for a prize fight, when his true mission was to foist a lottery upon the State. The cock and bull yarns about a contract being let for the construction of an arena were accepted as gospel truth. Nearly every county convention in the State pledged its candidates to vote for the repeal of the prize fight law. This ensures a big majority for the Flanigan bill.

CARSON, Jan. 31.

The Assembly met at 11 o'clock.

Judiciary Committee reported favorably on A. B. No. 6.

Ways and Means reported favorably on A. B. No. 4, for protection of State treasury, and it was passed.

Ways and Means committee reported unfavorably on A. B. No. 8. Mr. Allen, chairman of the committee, made a minority report. The bill calls for reduction of salaries of State officers.

Ways and Means reported favorably on A. B. No. 9, reducing salaries of Supreme Court judges.

Conway gave notice of bill to amend revenue act relating to licenses.

Conway also gave notice of bill providing for guide boards on public highways.

All Pupils Must be Vaccinated.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees for Reno School District No. 10 yesterday afternoon it was ordered by the board as follows:

The board of trustees, having fully considered the probability of small-pox becoming epidemic in Reno, it is ordered that the children in attendance at the public schools be vaccinated for the purpose of avoiding any and every spread of the disease, and it is further ordered that in the event of any child or children refuse to be vaccinated as required by the board that such child or children so refusing discontinue their attendance at school till otherwise ordered by the board.

It was also ordered that S. M. Jamison, trustee, procure all supplies for the schools till otherwise ordered by the board. The regular monthly bills were allowed and thereupon the board adjourned.

V. & T. Not Lobbying.

Notwithstanding the fact that certain legislation may be accomplished which will be of benefit to the Virginia & Truckee railroad, that corporation is not pulling any wires. It cannot be said that it is attempting to curry favor with the law-makers. The solons are paying their own fares and the road is trusting to fair and equitable treatment from them.

Sixteen cars of cattle and four cars of horses were shipped from Reno yesterday.
